#Category 2: Word games for Housewarming Party

Game 21: Hangman
Hangman can be played with more than 2 people, I would still advise making groups among the guests to make it a huge success. It is a classic word game. It also helps in improving your vocabulary and spelling skills while having a lot of fun.

Game Rules:

The rules for this game are pretty simple. All you need to do is let the one group write down dashes on a piece of paper representing the number of letters in the word they have thought of and the other team has to guess the word. Correct letters will be inserted in the word and wrong guesses will lead to the drawing of the “hangman" segment.

Supplies:

When it comes to the supplies, you need to have a bundle of plain sheets and some pens to start this game. Do not forget that you need to decide on the groups beforehand or maybe a draw during the party to let the guests decide their own teams.

References to learn more:

Consequences is an extremely fun game to play especially if you have a lot of players. This game will definitely make you think about a lot of creative ideas and use them in your favor. It is a really nice game to play if you divide your guests among various groups and ask them to be humorously creative.

Game Rules:

The rules are pretty simple. The first player in the team starts with writing a male name and the second person writes “met” along with a female name. The third person writes “he said” followed by a complete sentence and so does the fourth person using “she said”, again followed by a complete sentence. Once the sentences are finished, they can be read out loud.

Supplies:

All this requires is some sheets of paper and pens
Apples to Apples is one of the best housewarming games to play if you have kids coming to the party as well.

Game Rules

Housewarming games rules are pretty simple as well. This game has red cards (carrying the name of a person, thing, place, etc.) as well as green cards (with two descriptions that are completely different from one another). The player having the green card selects one of the descriptions and the remaining people have to choose a card from their red cards. The judge decides which one of the red cards matches the description the most.

Supplies:
• All you will be needing is the deck of red and green cards to play with.
• Apples to Apples Party Box – Amazon

Game 26: Topple
When it comes to housewarming party games ideas, topple is not very far from the list.

Game Rules:

Topple is actually a wheel having most of the alphabet letters on it along with many “topic cards” covering 144 different categories. The simplest of all the ways to play this game is that the player has to come with a word that fits the topic within a time limit of 10 seconds.

Supplies:

- You can get the topple board game online (amazon) or at a convenience store.

References to learn more:

Game 28: Upwords
Upwords game might just be on the top of the housewarming party games list when it comes to adults. It is like 3D scrabble.

Game Rules:

It has a smaller board than scrabble and you can stack tiles on top of other tiles to come up with new words.

Supplies:

- You can just get the board game online or at a store near your house.

References to learn more:

- YouTube Video Tutorial: How to Play Upwords

Game 29: WordHub

WordHub is an extremely fun word game to play with a lot of friends.

Game Rules:
The rules are like this. It is like Boggle but a bit easier. You have to form as many words as you can use from the given letters but the advantage is that the letters don't have to be in the exact same order mentioned.

Supplies:

- You can just get a board from your local convenience store to play it.

Game 30: Bananagrams (Handpicked)

Bananagrams game is an extremely wonderful choice if you have kids coming to your housewarming party.

Game Rules:

The rules are pretty easy to understand as well. Firstly, you will need to distribute the letter tiles among the players, facedown. You will have to say “split" and everyone can begin turning over to see the letters they have got on their respective tiles. After that, the first person to use all the letters to form a word wins the game.

Supplies:
• The board game is available online if you wish to choose this game.

Game 31: Word on the Street

Word on the street game is exactly as interesting as it sounds. It will be a great choice for your housewarming party games.

Game Rules:

There are two teams in this game and they will take turns on the board. The letter tiles are arranged in the middle lane of the board which is called the “median strip”. You will have to decide a word and pull all the letters it requires from the middle strip to your own lane or street before the other team does.

It is perfect for healthy competition and fun.

Supplies:
• You can find the game at amazon online or at a game shop.

References to learn more:

Game 33: Scattergories (Handpicked)

Scattergories was one of my favorite games growing up. I am pretty sure it will make up a great housewarming game.

Game Rules:

The rules are clear and easy. The only thing you have to do is to roll the dice. You also have to decide a particular amount of time in which you can fill up categories forming words that start with the letter.

Supplies:

- You will be requiring the board game along with some sheets of paper and pens.

References to learn more:

- YouTube Video Tutorial: How to Play Scattergories

Game 34: Madlibs (Handpicked)
Madlibs was one of the most popular board games in the 90s but has continued to make an impact even to this day.

Game Rules:

All you have to do is to fill up blanks in a half-completed story. Make sure to come up with really funny and interesting ideas to keep the game going.

Supplies:

- You can easily find the game online. Also, make sure to arrange for some sheets of paper and pens for your guests.

References to learn more:

Game 35: Pass the Pen
Trust me on this, choose this game to be played at your housewarming party. It will surely lead to a lot of memories and enjoyable moments.

Game Rules:

The rules are exactly like the name suggests. You will be given 10 seconds to draw a picture and everyone else playing the game will have to guess what you have made. If they guess it correctly, you get points otherwise the pen is passed to the other player. My suggestion will be to make up two teams to make the game more fun.

Supplies:

- You can easily get it online or at a local game shop.

References to learn more:

Game 36: Crazy Letters

Crazy Letters is a well-known game especially if you have children coming to your housewarming party.

Game Rules:

You can divide two teams and then one team has to jumble all the letters that make up a particular word and the other team has to arrange the letters to form that word. If done correctly, they win points.

Supplies:

- The game can be easily bought online since it is all you will require to play it.

Game 37: 4-Bidden Words (Handpicked)

Bidden Words is a good game to play if all the people on your invitation list are adults.

Game Rules:

The rules are still pretty simple. The players have to compete with each other in order to guess the Buzz word, making sure that they do not use any of the forbidden
Supplies:

- All you will require to play is the board game which can be easily available at amazon online.
